

Keaton Brown

1422 Crescent Ridge Dr. • College Station, Tx 77845 • (307) 413-1020
KeatonBrown1@gmail.com

Objective

My name is Keaton Brown, I am an electrical engineering student here at A&M. My Objective is to get real world Electrical Engineering experience during an internship over summer 2016.

Education

Texas A&M University - College Station, Texas

Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering Minors: Mandarin, Math

Graduation date: May of 2017

Experience

Owner and Manager of Flying K Properties

- Manage tenants, leasing agreements, rent, and all other paperwork

Jackson Hole Aviation, Jackson, Wy

Certified line service technician:

2010-present (summers)

- Work together with a well-trained team handling up to 70 airplanes worth hundreds of millions of dollars in 16 hours
- Safely distribute thousands of gallons of fuel per day
- Provide excellent customer service attending the airplane from the moment persons arrive until they depart and making sure the plane is securely stored

Currently working in IT support for the college of engineering

present (schoolyear)

Activities

- Officer of A&M e-sports
- IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers)
- Studied Mandarin for 7 weeks in China
- Volunteer for the Teton County Sheriffs Department
- Completed FAA private pilot's certificate at 17, the youngest age allowable
- Raspberry pi projects.

Relevant Coursework

- I am currently taking a project oriented course that will prepare me for a real world job environment. Ask me about it!